Jazzing It Up

XYLO has taken a decades-old mainstay of the foodservice industry - stainless steel buffetware - and breathed new life into it. We believe that catering companies, party planners, event halls, and banqueting folks of all backgrounds should have the freedom to jazz up their tabletops and food stations with a transformative collection of colorful buffetware. The XYLO lineup effortlessly merges beauty and functionality into a spectacular solution that dramatically sets the tone of every event 🎷

Loud & Proud

Take a conventional stainless steel chafing dish. Embellish it with a color-rich or wood-patterned or marble-flecked veneer.
